The Event

On September 25-26, 2025, the Association of Pedestrian and Bicycle Professionals will host the 2025 APBP Virtual Summit: A Path to Progress. This event is a series of live, educational and professional development sessions that will dive into the many facets of the active transportation field today. Breakout sessions and keynote speakers will provide training, idea sharing, collaboration, and networking that attracts professionals working on active transportation projects throughout North America. The full schedule of sessions and speakers will be published in July.
